

bakery	a place where bread and cakes are made or sold butchers	a place where meat is sold greengrocers	a place where vegetables and fruit are sold dairy	a place where milk and cheese are sold fishmonger	a place where fish is sold market	a place where food is sold supermarket	a big shop that sells all types of food

Year 1 : Local History

Shopping in our local area in the 1950s and 1960s

Now most people buy all of the food in one shop. It is called the supermarket.

In the past, people bought food from different shops.

counter

scales

tins

paper bag

In the past, food was stored differently. The shopkeeper helped people to get the food.

Chamberlayne Road in the past and present.